

Note: Utah State Law (Section 59-2-103-5) requires a property owner to declare the proper classification of their property whenever a deed records to obtain a primary residential tax exemption. Similar filings are also necessary to maintain or receive greenbelt property tax exemptions. Please consult the applicable County Assessor's Office to determine whether this exemption applies to this transaction.

- Verify the wiring instructions provided by the title company and confirm them directly with your bank or a trusted contact to prevent wire fraud.
- If applicable, complete the water right or water share transfer after closing with the state or with the irrigation company and ensuring that all necessary documentation and fees are properly submitted.
- File for a primary residence exemption with the county assessor to potentially qualify for property tax savings.
- Sign up for "Property Watch" from your county recorder (if available)
- Arrange for payment of HOA/Association dues and ensure that you are aware of the payment schedule and any specific requirements.
- Coordinate with the seller to transfer the utilities into your name and set up any desired automatic payments or billing preferences.
- Arrange for the changing of locks either through a locksmith or your home warranty company.
- Identify the garbage and recycling pick-up days in your new neighborhood to properly dispose of waste and recycling materials.
- Set up or transfer TV/internet services and gym memberships according to your preferences and needs.
- Familiarize yourself with the location of shut-off valves for water and gas in case of emergency situations.
- Forward your mail using the United States Postal Service (USPS) online forwarding service.
- Take pictures of receipts for any deductible expenses related to the purchase of the property or potential reimbursements.
- Prepare for moving day by fully charging your cell phones, having essentials like paper towels, bathroom tissue, and plastic cups/utensils readily available. Also, keep some cash on hand for unexpected expenses.
- Inform your insurance agent about your new home and ensure that your homeowner's insurance policy is active and covers the correct property.
- Consider creating a home maintenance checklist to keep track of regular tasks such as changing air filters, servicing HVAC systems, or scheduling lawn care.
- Research local service providers, such as plumbers, electricians, and landscapers, and keep their contact information handy for any future needs or emergencies.
- Familiarize yourself with any homeowner association (HOA) rules, regulations, and restrictions, and ensure compliance with their guidelines.
- Take the time to explore your new neighborhood and introduce yourself to neighbors, making connections and getting to know the community.

Several companies & service providers may require notice of your new address.

- Auto, life, & health insurance companies. (Ensure your policies reflect the correct information and coverage).
- HR department at your workplace for payroll and benefits purposes.
- Transfer your prescriptions to a new pharmacy and notify your healthcare providers, including doctors, dentists, & other specialists.
- Banks, credit unions and credit card companies, especially those that mail monthly statements.
- Subscription services, such as streaming platforms, online shopping accounts, or meal delivery.
- Any professional associations or fraternal organizations you are a member of.
- Driver's license & other state/professional licenses and permits. Remember other government agencies, such as the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV), Medicare, Medicaid, and the Social Security Administration.
- Schools, educational institutions, and student financial aid lenders.
- Magazine & newspaper subscriptions.

Online Residential Property Declaration Forms

To complete and submit PT-19A or PT-19B online, click on the link below:

Primary Residential Exemption Form

Residential Property Declaration Instructions for PT-19A \(PDF\)

*Note: Use the PT-19A Form for the PT-19A and PT-19B

PT-19A – This form must be submitted to the County Assessor’s office where your new residential property is located within 90 days of receipt. Failure to do so will result in withdrawal of the primary residential exemption from your residential property.

PT-19B – This form must be returned to the County Assessor’s office within 30 days of mailing. Failure to do so will result in withdrawal of the primary residential exemption from your residential property.

Utah Code Ann. 59-2-103 Rate of assessment of property – Residential Property \(103.5 Exemption\)

The fair market value of a residential property located within the state is allowed a residential exemption equal to a 45% reduction in the value of the property. Part-year residential property located within the state is allowed the residential exemption if the part-year residential property is used as residential property for 183 or more consecutive calendar days during the calendar year for which the owner seeks to obtain the residential exemption. No more than one acre of land per residential unit may qualify for the residential exemption. A residential exemption is limited to one primary residence per household. An owner of multiple primary residences located within the state is allowed a residential exemption for each residential property that is the primary residence of a tenant.

Residential Property Declaration Form and Instructions >

Q: How can I tell if I am receiving the exemption? >

Q: Why haven't I heard of this exemption before? >

Q: Why am I specifically receiving this form? >

Q: What happens if I don't return this form to the County Assessor? >

Q: What should I do if I no longer qualify for the residential exemption? >

Q: When did the primary residential exemption come into effect? >

Q: There is a statement concerning Utah income taxes on this form. What does this property tax exemption have to do with Utah State income taxes? >

Q: My individual circumstances are unusual and I have further questions on the primary residential exemption. How do get further information? >

Certification

1. Is this property used as a residential property or part-year residential property for you or another person? Yes No
("Part-year residential property" means property that is not residential property on January 1 of a calendar year but becomes residential property after January 1 of the calendar year)

2. Will this primary residential property or part-year residential property be occupied for 183 or more consecutive calendar days by the owner or another person? Yes No
(a part-year residential property occupied for 183 or more consecutive calendar days in a calendar year by the owner(s) or a tenant is eligible for the exemption)

If a property owner or a property owner's spouse claims a residential exemption under Utah Code Ann. § 59-2-103 for property in this state that is the primary residence of the property owner or the property owner's spouse, that claim of a residential exemption creates a rebuttable presumption that the property owner and the property owner's spouse have domicile in Utah for income tax purposes. The rebuttable presumption of domicile does not apply if the residential property is the primary residence of a tenant of the property owner or the property owner's spouse.

Are Title Thieves Really Stealing Utah Homes?

QR for KSL-TV Story

If you've come across those infomercials touting services that promise to protect homeowners from fraudulent title theft, you might be wondering about the actual likelihood of such an event occurring. Rest assured, while title fraud is indeed a possibility, it's an exceptionally rare and unlikely occurrence.

In fact, earlier this year, several reputable local media outlets delved into the subject, seeking insights from experts. A notable example is KSL-TV's Matt Gephardt and Sloan Schrage, who explored the truth behind claims of title thieves in this eye-opening piece:

www.ksl.com/article/50334898/ads-claim-title-thieves-can-steal-your-home-but-can-you-really-lose-your-house

Benefits of Title Insurance – Built in coverage for marketable title, fraud & forgery

While the news coverage shed light on this issue, it's worth noting that numerous homeowners are already safeguarded by their title insurance policies, often acquired at the time of property purchase. An Owner's policy encompasses protection against unmarketable titles, and many policies obtained since 2008 have extended coverage that includes safeguarding against post-policy forgery, fraud, and title-related complications. The specifics of coverage can vary, and deductibles might apply depending on the policy type. Remarkably, many policyholders could potentially have coverage that reaches up to 150% of their property's original purchase price.

Property Watch - Free service in some counties

For homeowners seeking a proactive approach to staying informed about their property's status, the Property Watch service is a remarkable resource available in select Utah counties. This service allows residents to stay in the loop about any recorded changes affecting their property. Once you enroll, you'll receive email notifications whenever a document is recorded that impacts your property's status. Currently, this service is available in the following Utah counties:

Washington: <https://www.washco.utah.gov/2021/11/04/sign-up-for-property-watch/>

Salt Lake: <https://slco.org/data-services/PropertyWatch/PropertyWatch.aspx>

Uintah: <https://co.uintah.ut.us:8443/ords/ucdev/r/property-watch-signup/home>

Weber: https://www.webercountyutah.gov/forms/property_watch/

Cache: <https://www.cachecounty.org/recorder/propertywatch/faq.html>

Utah: <https://property-watch.utahcounty.gov/>

Daggett: <https://www.daggettcountry.org/CivicAlerts.aspx?AID=1324>

While the fear of title theft might be a headline-grabbing concern, the reality is that this type of fraud is an anomaly rather than the norm. Existing title insurance policies offer significant protection for homeowners, and the Property Watch service provides a valuable tool for staying informed about changes to your property.

Corporate Fraud Watch

The Utah Division of Corporations and Commercial Code provides a service to assist businesses in monitoring and receiving notifications regarding changes to their corporate information. These changes may be indicative of identity theft or fraudulent activities. The State promptly sends an email within 24 hours of any modification to a Business Address, Registered Agent, or Registered Principal. The cost for this service is $3.00 per year.
