Lender Approval Information Packet

Backman Title Services has a rich history dating back to its foundation in 1900. Over the years, the company has undergone transformative changes, culminating in its merger with Stewart Title Company in 1989, leading to the establishment of Backman Stewart Title Company. During the subsequent 16 years, the company grew significantly, emerging as a leader in the industry and earning a reputation as one of the most reputable and largest locally owned title companies in Utah.

In 2005, Backman Title formed a valuable partnership with First American Title Insurance Company. This partnership not only led to a return to the original name, "Backman Title," but also opened new avenues for growth and an unwavering commitment to delivering exceptional service to their clients.

At Backman Title, the primary focus has always been on delivering precise and accurate work right from the outset. To achieve this, the company employs local experts who possess an in-depth understanding of Utah laws, underwriting standards, and best practices. Unlike some others in the industry who outsource their title searching to non-local and non-resident personnel, Backman Title's Utah-licensed title examiners boast an impressive average of over 20 years of experience.

While the company remains dedicated to providing secure and reliable title work and escrow closings, they understand the importance of adaptability in the ever-changing business climate. As the economy and technology continue to evolve, Backman Title is committed to enhancing its services while maintaining the warm and professional atmosphere that their clients have come to expect.

With over a century of experience safeguarding our clients, Backman Title has built its foundation on integrity, tradition, and trust. Today, they look toward the future with a focus on experience, technology, and service, ensuring they remain at the forefront of the industry. By choosing Backman Title, clients can enjoy the peace of mind that comes from partnering with a company that has a proven track record of excellence and a commitment to delivering exceptional service.

Mr. Canyon Anderson
Backman Title Services, Ltd.
7070 S Union Park Ave Ste 100
Midvale 84047-4100

Dear Mr. Canyon Anderson,

We are excited to announce that Backman Title Services, Ltd. is certified as an Authorized Service Provider for Alliant National Title Insurance Company for 2023.

To earn Alliant National’s Authorized Service Provider certification, Backman Title Services, Ltd. demonstrated a track record of complying with Alliant National’s control standards, including an extensive review under Alliant National’s Agent Quality Management System (Agent QMS). The Agent QMS has been SSAE 18 Type 2 compliant since 2014 and is certified annually by A-LIGN, a national independent CPA firm specializing in security, assurance and compliance auditing. The latest SSAE 18 Type 2 report is available to any of your lenders upon request.

The Agent QMS and the SSAE 18 Type 2 audit include the following processes and systems:

1. New Agent Acceptance Process: A thorough, standards-based agent approval process, including comprehensive escrow and trust accounting reviews.
2. Quality Assurance Review: A comprehensive examination of business processes, internal controls, and ALTA Best Practices, including escrow and closing. The review is conducted by a trained auditor with extensive experience examining the operations of title agencies.
3. Agent Review Process: An annual agent review incorporating twelve standards including a subset of ALTA Best Practices is performed to maintain certification as an Authorized Service Provider.
4. Corrective Action Process: Our corrective action process defines corrections and corrective actions required under our systems for an agent to maintain this certification. If any of the major controls tested fail to meet the standards, a corrective action is opened and tracked until effectively closed.

Alliant National’s Authorized Service Provider seal affirms Backman Title Services, Ltd. meets the rigorous standards essential to being an Alliant National Authorized Service Provider. We are proud to have Backman Title Services, Ltd. as an integral member of our network of independent title and settlement agents partnering with us toward our mutual goal of providing the best real estate settlement process for all parties in the transaction.

With our respect and appreciation, and on behalf of all of us at Alliant National,

David Sinclair
President

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
